

Rachel Levinson-Waldman

Brennan Center for Justice
New York University School of Law

Thursday September 11

The Constitution in the National Surveillance State

7:30-9:00 pm

New Science Center Auditorium

Rachel Levinson-Waldman is counsel to the Brennan Center's Liberty and National Security Program, which seeks to advance effective national security policies that respect constitutional values and the rule of law. She has written and testified extensively on the collection of citizens' personal data by the National Security Agency. She previously served as senior counsel to the American Association of University Professors, focusing on academic freedom and the First Amendment.

Discussion for Students

A Career Path in Public Interest Law

3:15-4:45 pm

Jewish Studies Center 209

Friday September 12

Lunch Discussion for Faculty and Staff

Academic Freedom and the Law

12:00-1:00 pm

Jewish Studies Center 209