Dr. Eban Goodstein
Director, Bard Center for Environmental Policy and Director of Graduate Programs in Sustainability

“New Rules for Climate Protection: Student & Citizen Action to Change the Future”

Tuesday, November 17th
7pm to 9pm
Arnold Hall @ the Jewish Studies Building

Dr. Eban Goodstein is an economist, author and environmental educator known for his work in the clean energy movement. Currently Director of the Bard Center for Environmental Policy, he holds a bachelor’s degree in geology from Williams College and a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Michigan. In recent years, he has coordinated climate education events at over 2500 colleges, universities, high schools and other institutions across the country. Goodstein is the author of a college textbook, Economics and the Environment, now in its sixth edition, and he directs two national educational initiatives on global warming: C2C and The National Climate Seminar.